By deleting the following language from Section 2:

Section 3-17-113.

(a) The secretary of state shall have the authority to establish, by duly promulgated rules and regulations, the procedures and criteria for requiring and obtaining criminal background checks for officers, directors, trustees and the principal salaried executive staff officer of a § 501(c)(3) organization that has filed an annual event application. The secretary of state may utilize the Tennessee bureau of investigation or the federal bureau of investigation to conduct criminal background checks.

(b) Procedures and payments of costs associated with criminal background checks shall be governed by §§ 38-6-103 and 38-6-109. The § 501(c)(3) organization that has filed an annual event application shall be responsible for payment for all criminal backgrounds checks required by this act. The secretary of state shall not pay for any criminal background check required by this act

(c) Criminal background checks may include fingerprint checks against state and federal criminal records maintained by the Tennessee bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation.

(d) The secretary of state shall be immune from suit for declining to approve the conducting of an annual event based upon criminal background information received pursuant to this act.

(e) The provisions of this section shall apply to annual event applications for the operation of annual events to be conducted on and after July 1, 2005.

and by substituting instead the following:

Section 3-17-113.

(a) The secretary of state may establish, by duly promulgated rules and regulations, the procedures and criteria for requiring and obtaining criminal background checks for the following persons who will operate the annual event for a §501(c)(3) organization that has filed an annual event application: officers, directors, trustees and the principal salaried executive staff officer. The secretary of state may utilize the Tennessee bureau of investigation or the federal bureau of investigation to conduct criminal background checks.

(b) Procedures and payments of costs associated with criminal background checks shall be governed by §§ 38-6-103 and 38-6-109. The § 501(c)(3) organization that has filed an annual event application shall be responsible for payment for all criminal backgrounds checks that may be required by this section. The secretary of state shall not pay for any criminal background check required by this section.

(c) Criminal background checks may include fingerprint checks against state and federal criminal records maintained by the Tennessee bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation.

(d) The secretary of state shall be immune from suit for declining to approve the conducting of an annual event based upon criminal background information received pursuant to this section.

(e) In the event that the secretary establishes procedures and criteria for requiring and obtaining criminal background checks, such provisions shall only apply to annual event applications for the operation of annual events to be conducted on and after July 1, 2005.
